Thank you for your invitation in the Czech Institute for Supervision.

It is nice to be here as an observer role, coming from Köln in Germany. I took part in three examinations with several boards and dynamics – flow, structure and role change. I had a lovely translator and could follow the examinations word by word and also the words beside, the atmosphere, the expressions.... As an experienced examiner with other institutes in Germany and Sweden during the last years I found out a new experience by looking counsel – films of the candidates. There was a high quality ground with good connections, contract, concept, theory, system organization, personal competence, to grow up in the new role of supervision.

During the examinations there were many parallel processes, but the professional examination board had a good feeling to work with the resources, the identity and the aims of the candidates.

Thank you very much for the common intercultural process.

With some words of Winnie the Pooh I wish you all the best for the future.

“ How sweet to be a cloud, floating in the blue
It makes him very proud, to be a little cloud”
